YOUTH FOR CLIMATE JUSTICE

In a world where climate change is among the most important global challenges, Clim'Act - Youth for Climate Justice - wants to promote a capacity building experience tailored for youths and youth workers in climate justice campaigning.

The project will be a unique opportunity for Italian, Bulgarian, Ecuadorian and Nigerian youth from different social, economic and cultural backgrounds, to meet, exchange, collaborate as a team to tackle climate change .

BUILDING YOUTH LEADERSHIP

- Strengthen youth work and International cooperation in climate related active citizenship;
- Reinforce campaigning competences and involve over 600 young activists in the development and implementation of a climate justice campaign;
- Enhance their understanding of the International decision processes and their ability of action towards COP23;
- Increase social inclusion of youth with fewer opportunities through active citizenship and intercultural cooperation.

ACTING FOR CLIMATE JUSTICE

IL CLIMATE CAMP

Organised in July 2017 in the natural reserve of the Aniene Valley, the climate camp wants to train 25 young activists from Ecuador, Nigeria, Bulgaria and Italy and reinforce their leadership abilities in climate justice campaigning.

THE CAMPAIGN

Looking towards COP23, the next global governance meeting on climate change, young participants collaborates on the development of a shared campaign for climate justice to be implemented in their countries.
